Red, White but no longer Blue celebrations at the SPCA!

Charlottesville, Virginia: Independence Day honors the birthday of the United States of America and the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. You can celebrate at the SPCA with the adoption of a new pet. July 4th may be all about the Red, White and Blue, but with a new pet you will never be blue. The love of a pet brings new color and life to every day. You will be celebrating July 4th and beyond with your new friend.

With the SPCA's Red, White and Blue adoption special, all cats and dogs over 4 months of age are $17.76 (certain exclusions applied). The Red, White and Blue adoption special is in effect today through July 7th.

The mission of the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA is to provide a safe and nurturing environment for the lost, abandoned, and homeless animals of the City of Charlottesville and the County of Albemarle and to increase the number of these animals being placed in appropriate, loving, and permanent homes through adoptions, foster care, and outreach, and to set a standard of excellence and leadership in shelter animal care, humane education, and progressive animal welfare programs.
